BURROUGHS IN JUG

H. Burroughs, the young gentleman from Virginia who was arrested on a charge of vagrancy some time ago, was this morning gathered in by the police on the same old charge. On the first occasion the case was continued for sentence for ten days, it being understood that in the meantime the young man was to depart for other climes. Hawaii, however, possessed too many charms for him and he lingered in spite of his peril. This morning the ten days were up, and as Burroughs did not grace the court room with his presence, Judge Andrade ordered that he be apprehended and placed in custody forthwith.

J. P. Cooke was a returning passenger from Maui today.

Capt. C. W. Otwell returned from his official trip to the other islands.

Mrs. F. T. Waterhouse and children came back today from Hawaii, arriving in the Mauna Kea.

Cecil Brown and F. A. Schaefer, administrators of the estate of the late August Dreier, this morning entered a petition asking that they be allowed to pay the widow a reasonable sum of money for maintenance of "Ulanah," the old home. In the petition, the administrators state that they have the sum of $2636.15 in cash on hand.

The costs in the famous old Lowrie-Baldwin suit were this morning taxed by Judge De Bolt. Contrary to expectations generally the costs were very small. By order of the Court, William J. Lowrie will have to pay the sum of $84.20, which are the proved costs. The case was that of Lowrie vs. H. P. Baldwin, et al., in an action for damages.

Federal Grand Jurors for the coming term were drawn this morning as follows: Ambrose Wirtz, Frank B. Cook, A. S. Lane, I. Rubenstein, Adolph Gertz, Thomas F. McTighe, A. K. Jones, Ralph E. Baldwin, W. F. Dillingham, T. H. Kennedy, Clarence Waterman, Alfred E. Horner, D. P. R. Isenberg, B. F. Hellbron, Harry Gray, R. E. Wright, T. A. Roman, Peter High, J. E. Roche, C. D. Wright, Claus Blackstad, J. S. Low, Charles Daniels.

DID NOT REMEMBER

Carl On Tai, who was arrested on a charge of violating the Edmunds Act a short time ago, was released this morning by United States Commissioner A. F. Judd, because the chief witness for the prosecution had a bad failing of memory, and to each important question asked, would intelligently answer "I don't remember."

R. K. Bonine, the moving picture man, arrived today in the Mauna Kea. Next week will see lively purchases at A. Blom's in ladies' waists and ribbons. Seelin windows and note prices.

An interesting lease was filed this morning with Registrar Merriam. Bruce Cartwright, trustee of the estate of the late Queen Emma Kaleleonalani, has leased forty-eight and a fraction acres of land at Halawa, Ewa, to the Honolulu Plantation Company, for a term of thirty-two years. The annual rental is $900, payable half-yearly in sums of $450.

Arrangements for the Odd Fellows' entertainment of their brethren of the fleet tonight at Odd Fellows' Hall are complete. The entertainment is announced to begin at 7:30 o'clock. Three floors will be used. The upper floor will be used for dancing, the next floor below will be used for cards and refreshments, and the floor below that for children's entertainment. By Admiral Swinburne's orders, special leave will be granted all Odd Fellows in the fleet to attend the affair.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THE MAUNA KEA arrived from Hilo and way ports at 8 o'clock this morning. She brought a very large list of passengers, numbering 172. Among them are school children, coming back to their schools, which open next week. John T. Moir, manager of Onomes plantation, was among the arrivals. He goes to Cuba on a three months' leave of absence. He will probably return with John Watt of Oia. The following cargo was brought by the Mauna Kea: 1 locomotive boiler, 1 horse, 2 boxes pigs, 3 bags coin, 3 mules, 4 crates chickens, 7 bags awa, 7 bags taro, 11 empty barrels, 12 bags cocoa, 14 crates celery, 16 packages vegetables, 18 bundles hides, 19 bags cabbages, 18 pcs. Jap. oars, 22 barrels empty bottles, 28 empty kegs, 100 cases pineapples, 101 oia ties, 247 sheep, 223 packages sundries.

THE MAUNA KEA, which arrived this morning from Hilo, sailed again at 3 o'clock this afternoon, carrying the special excursionists to Hilo, where Labor Day will be observed.

THE LITTLE steamer Noeau came in this morning at 6:15 o'clock from Kona ports. Her cargo consisted of 3520 bags sugar, 35 hd cattle, 28 pieces machinery, 20 packages sundries. Purser Logan reports 5900 bags of sugar awaiting shipment at Honokaa.

THE STEAMER Likelike arrived this morning from Paahau, bringing 6400 bags of sugar, 400 empty wine barrels, 14 empty carboys, 19 empty gas drums and 1 roller.

SUPREME COURT

REVERSES CLERK

In the matter of F. J. Lowrey et al vs. the Territory in the appeal from the clerk re taxation of costs, the Supreme Court this morning handed down a decision deciding that the ruling of the clerk should be reversed and the amount of $102.50 in the defendants' bill of costs be disallowed. The syllabus of the case is as follows:

Costs.—The United States Supreme Court having reversed with costs the judgment of this court sustaining defendant's demurrer, and having remanded the cause, the defendant, who finally prevailed, cannot tax against plaintiffs the costs which it paid pursuant to the mandate of the appellate court.

HOME RULE SLATE

HILLO, Hawaii, Sept. 3.—At a secret session of leaders of the Home Rule party, the following candidates have been selected to represent the party at the November election:

For Territorial Senator: H. M. Kanio and David Baker.

For Supervisor, South Hilo: W. A. Todd.

For Sheriff: W. M. Keolanui.

For Treasurer: T. K. Lalakea.

For County Clerk: Wm. Edmonds.

Candidates for the House of Representatives have not yet been determined. There will probably not be any nomination for Auditor, the Home Rule vote going to Maguire. The North Hilo Supervisorship is still vacant, as is the office of County Attorney, for there is reported to be some opposition to the re-nomination of Charles Williams, though this may be overcome after the County Attorney returns to Hilo this afternoon.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.
